

SORDO

Barolo Chinato

A long maturation in oak barrels turns this aromatised wine into an elixir with little alcohol; the color is an amber red with faint ruby tinge. Pleasing and inviting, it surprises for its spicy, intense, and lingering fragrance. A unique product for real connoisseurs. Though there are many ways of serving this wine, it's great as an apéritif with soda water, bitter orange, and some ice.