Château LALENE CUVÉE PRESTIGE 2016 BORDEAUX SUPERIEUR ROUGE

OVERVIEW

Château Lalène and its vineyard are located in the heart of the Bordeaux Region, in the commune of Bossugan, 60 kilometres from Bordeaux, East of the Gironde River. Since 1845, this property has always been run by the same family; five generations of wine-growers have passed down an ancestral know-how. Today, Laurent Cioci manages the domain.

VINEYARD

Soil: Chalky-clay.

Surface: 26 hectares

Location: The vineyard, South well-oriented, is located on the commune of Bossugan, East of the Gironde River.

Average age of the vineyard: 45 years

Grape varieties: 80% Merlot / 10% Cabernet Sauvignon / 10% Cabernet Franc

VINIFICATION

Classical vinification in thermo-regulated vats. Long vatting for 4 to 5 weeks. Ageing in oak barrels, with 33% new barrels.

WINE TASTING

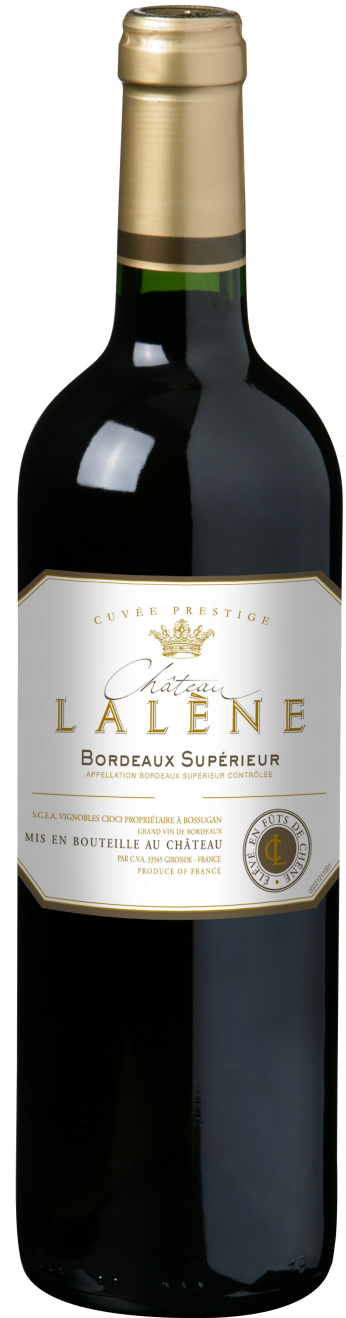

Beautiful deep purple colour. On the nose, elegant aromas of fresh fruits, violet and fine woody notes with roasted tones. On the palate, a lot of structure and volume with robust tannins and a long finish.

MATCHING FOOD AND WINE

Serve at 17-18°C with grilled beef tenderloin, smoked ham platter for an aperitif, or with poultry stew. This wine will enhance a good selection of cheeses or cooked meats.

AGEING POTENTIAL

From 5 to 10 years
