

LES Terrasses DE L'AYGUES

CAIRANNE

Sun-drenched hillsides, the scents of the garrigue, a mischievous river which changes its spelling... Cairanne is a delightful village, which comes into view around a rocky outcrop and charms visitors with its red, rose and white wines. The exceptional terroirs made of red marl and vines planted on terraces have led Cairanne to become a cru of the Rhône Valley from 2016. The Aygues River - which is an affluent of the Rhône river - flows through several regions until the terroir of Cairanne. - South of the village, the vineyards and garrigue border the terraces of Aygues River. This is the place where the grapes are harvested with the greatest care and will give birth to this cuvée which is paying tribute to these remarkable landscapes and terroirs.
