

CURIOUS WHITE

STORY

Marie is a young winemaker who lives her work with great passion. She discovered her talent for scents when, as a child, she loved to distinguish one perfume from another and then in nature find these same smells and discover how they looked alike.

In his adolescence, she realized that in the world of oenology she could combine her great capacity for aromas with nature by making genuinely different wines available to consumers. Now Marie is a talented and extraordinary winemaker.

What she likes most is creating innovative wines, with something different. This is how Curious was born, an elegant and cheerful wine. It was what she was looking for, a wine made from the must flower, which gave it a very delicate touch and made it ideal to enjoy with friends on any occasion, but also to finish making a special meal round and perfect.

A different wine that will manage to give light and shine to any moment of our lives. In honour to Marie, the most Curious winemaker we have ever seen.
